 The Parisian artist JEAN-MICHEL OTHONIEL's gilded glass fountains won't be the only things dancing at opening parties for the restored Water Theater grove in the gardens of the Château de Versailles in May. L.A. Dance Project will present the latest addition to its repertoire in the newly landscaped space on May 10 and 11, with a guest solo performance by the jookin street dancer LIL BUCK, starring as the sun god Apollo. Conceived by the company's founder, BENJAMIN MILLEPIED, now dance director
